

Agenda Item Summary Sheet

Item No: G-1
Meeting Date: July 3, 2019

Item Title: Update on Coastal Resilience Summit

Item Summary:

Staff of the Planning & Development Department (Michael Zehner, Kelly Wyatt, Deputy Director of Planning & Development, Holly White, Principal Planner, and Todd Krafft, Environmental Planner) recently attended the North Carolina Coastal Resilience Summit in Havelock on June 11 and 12. The intent of the Summit was to "inform the development of the North Carolina Coastal Climate Risk Assessment and Resilience Plan ("Plan") under Governor Cooper's Executive Order 80 so as to propel the coastal region's preparedness for the effects of climate changes including rising sea levels, increased frequency and severity of coastal and riverine flooding, increasing extreme weather, changing groundwater conditions and other shifting natural conditions." For informational purposes Staff is providing the Board with an overview of the Summit.
